

Michael Paikin, R&D Engineer at Gadot Biochemical Industries Ltd.
He is a graduate of Technological Faculty of Chemical- Pharmaceutical Institute, St. Petersburg, Russia. Fine Organic Synthesis of Pharmaceutical Active Substances
(M.Sc, 1986).

He works at GBI from 1992 on different posts. Few years acts as special salts plant process engineer and now as R&D Engineer. He is part of the "Fermentation team"of GBI.

Experienced in most of the common processes of chemical industry as reactions, crystallization, drying, solids/liquid separation, size reduction and size enlargement of solids (milling, micronizing, classification, granulation, and compaction), extraction.

He has contributed to development more then 8 new products from GBI portfolio, 2 patents .